"WHERE A GOOD CRIME CAN BE HAD BY ALL"

1968 Celebrating 40 Years of Independent Bookselling 2008

AUTHOR OF THE MONTH

GILLIAN GALBRAITH

Blood in the Water 192pp Pb $19.95

"If it was me, if I was the murderer, Alice thought, where would I go? What would I do? The job he had set himself was unfinished, he must be aware that his luck could not go on forever. It was a simple calculation; at best, a lifetime in prison, at worst he'd be killed by the police whilst attempting to complete his self-appointed task."

Introducing Alice Rice, Edinburgh detective. Smart and capable, but battling disillusionment and loneliness, she races against time and an implacable killer to solve a series of grisly murders among Edinburgh's professional elite in the well-to-do New Town.

Gillian Galbraith grew up near Haddington and is an Advocate specialising in medical negligence cases. She was the legal correspondent for The Scottish Farmer and has written on legal matters for The Times.

"This is a vivid and exciting story, set against the background of Edinburgh's legal and medical circles. There is not a dull page from start to finish."
- Alexander McCall Smith

ABBEY'S TURNS 40 A Continuing Retrospective: Part 4

We've discovered over the years that our shop isn't really geared for author events, primarily as we don't have a suitable space to hold them. However, we have held some events over the past 40 years that have attracted quite large numbers of people. The first event that proved very popular was for P D James, who attracted a crowd of over 250. We ended up having to move out our New Titles fixtures to accommodate them all. The next time we hosted James, we relocated to the nearby Bowlers' Club!

Another big in-store event was for Janet Evanovich. When we promoted this, we asked people to RSVP to assist with catering and the response indicated we would have around 110 people. However, unbeknown to us, the event had been mentioned in a popular women's magazine, and Janet had also mentioned it in a radio interview and publicised it on her website. The result was that 340 people turned up and we were packed to the rafters! Our catering was stretched to the limit - as was our stock of her books - but we all enjoyed a very entertaining Saturday afternoon.

Janet Evanovich, crime author

Other events held in-store on a smaller scale have included Ruth Rendell, Jonathan & Faye Kellerman, Lisa Scottoline, Kinky Friedman, Andrew Vachss, Kerry Greenwood, Alexander McCall Smith and Ian Rankin. Nowadays we tend to limit ourselves to having authors simply come into the shop to sign copies of their books for customers and have a bit of a chat, rather than to address an audience.
