"Where a good crime can be had by all"

ISSUE No. 284

SEPTEMBER 2009

At the close of a long day, Inspector Stephen Villani stands in the bathroom of a luxury apartment high above the city. In the glass bath, a young woman lies dead, a panic button within reach.

So begins Truth (384pp Tb $32.95), the sequel to Peter Temple's bestselling masterpiece, The Broken Shore (352pp Pb $23.95), winner of the Duncan Lawrie Dagger for Best Crime Novel. Villani's life is his work. It is his identity, his calling, his touchstone. But now, over a few sweltering summer days, as fires burn across the state and his superiors and colleagues scheme and jostle, he finds all the certainties of his life are crumbling. Truth is a novel about a man, a family, a city. It is about violence, murder, love, corruption, honour and deceit. And it is about truth. Due late September

 The Affair of the Mutilated Mink
380pp Pb $19.99

Burford Family Mysteries 2. The Earl of Burford can't believe his luck; Rex Ransom, his favourite star from the 'talkies', and his hot-shot producer, want to film their next feature at Alderley, the family's 17th-century country estate. Somewhat less enthusiastic is the Countess, who suddenly finds herself hosting an impromptu house party for the incoming Hollywood crowd. And then there's a murder in the dead of night. By morning Inspector Wilkins of the Westshire Constabulary is cast in the unlikely role of hero, as he tiptoes through the evidence and endeavours to unravel the slightly batty, thoroughly baffling mystery - and work out just what a mutilated mink coat has to do with anything. 304pp Hb $55

In Sir William's remote part of Scotland it seems almost possible that a young boy could have been stolen away by the fairies and returned 40 years later without having visibly aged. And if the boy isn't Davie Drummond, who is he? Then he suffers a succession of near-fatal 'accidents'. Could there be a connection with four other local singers who have vanished, one of them with political information of value to Scotland's enemies? Gil Cunningham and his wife Alyx have been sent to investigate. (Scottish)

Ross COULTHART

Dead Man Running

304pp Pb $24.99

For ten years, Steve Utah was a Bandidos insider. It all became too much and, in an attempt to regain control of his life, Utah resorted to the unthinkable: he rolled over to the Federal Police and told them all he knew about the Bandidos. He had intimate knowledge of every facet of the Bandidos' business in Australia and many aspects of their activities in North America. He literally knew where the bodies were buried. He knows he is a dead man running - that inevitably the Bandido code will be honoured and he will be silenced. But not before he gets his chance to open Australians' eyes to the looming threat in their midst: the relentless rise of sophisticated organised crime networks inside outlaw motorcycle gangs. (Australian) Due Sep

John KERR

Gangsters' Women

96pp Pb $9.95

The women who share a roof, a bed, a life with men from gangland have all the usual problems involving love, and then some. In the money one minute and skint the next, a good wardrobe is often all their men leave them when sudden death or a sentence of a heap of years is handed down. Alcohol - or drug-fired episodes, gambling losses, loans from sharks, huge and fragile egos, flare-ups over nothing when out: it's a dangerous life being close to some or all of that. And children make anybody's life more complicated. (Australian) Due Sep

John KERR

Outlaw Bikers

96pp Pb $9.95

The image of the outlaw bikie started with The Wild One and Rebel without a Cause. Then and now, the outlaw suspects straight society is full of crap, but he doesn't care and he doesn't want to change it. He wants to be left alone to do whatever he damn well likes. That has not changed in the half century since those films, but crime has. Brotherhoods clash and when they do, people can wind up maimed, dead or doing time. (Australian) Due Sep

Debi MARSHALL

Lambs to the Slaughter

352pp Pb $34.95

Young. White. High IQ. Middle-class family. Naval rating. A portrait of a yuppie success story? No. A portrait of child killer, Derek Ernest Percy. In this definitive, graphically chilling account of Percy's life, a man dubbed by a prison officer as 'Australia's answer to Hannibal Lecter', this award-winning author applies her investigative journalism skills to a forensic examination of the crimes, the man and his modus operandi. Christine PARNELL

The Sunday Smuggler

288pp Pb $9.99

Christopher Parnell was on holiday with his family in Bali when their holiday complex was raided and police claimed to have uncovered 12.5kg of hashish. Parnell and a travelling companion were immediately arrested. His companion was later released and left Bali as soon as the charges against him were dropped. Parnell was sentenced to 20 years and a fine of US$30,000. Over the next 11 years, he was subjected to unthinkable sessions of torture. Left to starve and fight every day for his survival, Parnell became a man forced to eat everything from cockroaches to human flesh. (Australian) Due Sep

Highway to Nowhere

320pp Pb $9.99

They were young, adventurous and idealistic, the eight backpackers from Australia, Britain and Germany who, between 1989 and 1992, set out from Sydney to hitchhike south along the Hume Highway. Seven were to die and their bodies concealed in the beautiful eucalyptus forest south of Sydney. Chillingly orchestrated, the slayings in the Belanglo State Forest shocked the world. In January 1990, a young British backpacker hitchhiking along the Hume highway escaped the grip of an armed assailant and ran for his life. It was to become a vital clue in the biggest manhunt in Australian history. (Australian) Due Sep

Deadlier Than the Male

235pp Pb $34.99

At least one of them is mad, they're all bad, and most of them are dangerous to know. They're a first 11 with a difference - 11 Australian women criminals whose names and reputations are synonymous with lawless, dangerous and often violent behaviour. Their exploits have become the stuff of legend over recent decades, often overshadowing the crimes of their less colourful male counterparts. Brought together for the first time between the covers of one book are unforgettable figures like The Lesbian Vampire Killer, The Boot Bitch, The Matriarch and The Angel of Death... A Poisoned Passion

288pp Pb $14.95

By the age of 24, Air Force Staff Sergeant Mike Severance had already survived a series of missions in Afghanistan and Iraq. But his life back at home, in Texas, would prove a lot more dangerous... In the winter of 2005, Mike's wife, a veterinarian named Wendi Mae Davidson, reported him missing and filed for divorce the very next day. Eventually Mike's body turned up - stabbed 41 times with a knife. But the autopsy revealed that the cause of death was exposure to drugs commonly used in veterinary medicine... (American) Due Sep

A Sudden Shot

304pp Pb $16.95

Arizona never experienced a summer like this, as snipers Dale Hausner and Sam Dieteman took aim at anything - and everything - in their path. Phoenix was a city in terror as the deadly spree ultimately claimed 37 victims, until one detective began to put the pieces together to nail the murderous duo. (American) Due Sep

Clare LONGRIGG

Boss of Bosses: How One Man Saved the Sicilian Mafia

320pp Pb $27.99

Bernardo Provenzano, head of the Sicilian mafia, is Italy's most notorious criminal. But despite apparent sightings all over Europe, for 43 years he eluded the police, until, on 11 April 2006, a crack police team broke into a tiny shepherd's hut in the mountains above Corleone. His story is one of passion and betrayal, told by the investigators who tracked him down, the spies who worked for him, the officers who arrested him and his consigliere at the heart of Cosa Nostra. (English)

Simon WELLS

Charles Manson: Coming Down Fast

448pp Tp $35

In the summer of 1969, a set of grisly murders shocked the world. Thin strands of evidence pointed to a hippyish cult set up in an abandoned ranch on the outskirts of Los Angeles, and its delusional, Messianic leader, Charles Manson. Little was known about this would-be rock star and his peculiar 'family' of young acolytes. It was only later, after the sensational court case, that the full, horrifying story would emerge. Collecting testimony from previous members of the Manson family alongside new evidence linking a cult member to a murder in London, and including never-before-published crime scene photographs, this charts Manson's terrifying rise from petty-criminal drifter to one of the most recognisable icons in criminal history. Cameron WHITE

Mr Nasty

272pp Pb $9.99

Cameron White juggled a successful career as a talent and literary agent with an equally successful career as a dealer. Both paid well, but unfortunately he derived as much pleasure from partaking of the drugs as he did from the money he made from them. He repeatedly tried to run away, but wherever he went the drugs went with him. It was only in Australia that he decided to turn his back for good on a life revolving around drugs. He returned to the UK and checked himself into a clinic where he got the support he needed. His story is not glamorous, but rather gives an insight into what it is really like in the twilight world of dealers, users and abusers. He believes that there is light at the end of the tunnel for those caught in the downward spiral of drug use. (English) Due Sep
