The Given Day

Danny Coughlin is Boston Police Department royalty and the son of one of the city's most beloved and powerful police captains. On the hunt for hard-line radicals as a favour to his father, Danny is drawn into the ideological fray and finds his loyalties compromised as the police department itself becomes swept up in potentially violent labour strife. ~~$24.95~~ $19.95

Gone Baby Gone

Kenzie and Gennaro have been hired to find a four-year-old abducted from her home. Despite news coverage and investigation, the police inquiry has so far uncovered nothing. The case is rife with oddities and when a second child disappears, they face a local media more interested in sensationalising the abductions than helping to solve them, a police force seething with lethal secrets, and a faceless power determined to obstruct their efforts. ~~$21.95~~ $16.95

Darkness, Take My Hand

When wisecracking detectives Kenzie and Gennaro agree to protect the son of a prominent psychiatrist who believes she may have angered the Boston Irish Mafia, they soon find bodies are piling up around them – seemingly unconnected with their case. And what's more, all the clues point to an unlikely suspect – a serial killer who has been in prison for 20 years. ~~$21.95~~ $16.95

A Drink Before the War

Kenzie and Gennaro take on a seemingly simple assignment on behalf of a politician: to uncover the whereabouts of Jenna, a cleaning woman who has allegedly stolen confidential Statehouse documents. But finding her proves easy compared to staying alive. ~~$21.95~~ $16.95

Mystic River

When they were children, Sean Devine, Jimmy Marcus and Dave Boyle were friends. But then a strange car pulled up their street. One boy got in the car, two did not, and something terrible happened. 25 years later, Sean is a homicide detective, Jimmy is an ex-con who owns a corner store, and Dave is trying to hold his marriage together and keep his demons at bay... ~~$24.95~~ $19.95

Nursing Home Murder (1934/1935/1935)
672pp Pb $29.99

A Man Lay Dead: Sir Hubert Handesley's extravagant weekend house-parties are famous for his exciting 'Murder Game'. But when the lights go up, there is a real corpse with a real dagger in the back. All seven suspects have skilful alibis – so Chief Detective Inspector Roderick Alleyn has to figure out whodunit... Enter a Murderer: At the Unicorn Theatre, a prop gun fires a very real bullet; the victim is an actor clawing his way to stardom using bribery instead of talent; and the suspects include two unwilling girlfriends and several relieved blackmail victims. The stage is set for one of Roderick Alleyn's most baffling cases... The Nursing Home Murder: A Harley Street surgeon and his attractive nurse are almost too nervous to operate. Their patient is the Home Secretary – and they both have very good personal reasons to want him dead. The operation is a complete success, yet he dies within hours. Inspector Alleyn must find out why... (New Zealander) Due Feb

Death in Ecstasy: Who slipped cyanide into the ceremonial 'wine of ecstasy' at the House of the Sacred Flame? The other initiates and the High Priest claim to be above earthly passions. But Roderick Alleyn discovers that the victim had provoked lust and jealousy, and he suspects that evil still lurks... Vintage Murder: New Zealand theatrical manager, Alfred Meyer, is planning a surprise for his wife's birthday – a jeroboom of champagne descending gently onto the stage after the performance. But, as Roderick Alleyn witnesses, something goes horribly wrong. Is the death the product of Maori superstitions, or something more down to earth? Artists in Crime: It starts as an art exercise – the knife under the drape, the pose outlined in chalk. But when Agatha Troy returns to her class, the scene has been re-enacted: the model is dead, fixed in the most dramatic pose Troy has ever seen. It's a difficult case for Chief Detective Inspector Alleyn. Is the woman he loves really a murderess...? (New Zealander) Due Feb

But Chief Detective Inspector Roderick Alleyn knows that something is up and has already planted his friend Lord Gossell at the dinner. But someone else has got there first... Overture to Death: It was planned as an act of charity: a new piano for the parish hall, and an amusing evening's entertainment to finance the gift. But all is doomed when Miss Campanula sits down to play. A chord is struck, a gunshot rings out, and Miss Campanula is dead. It seems to be a case of sinister infatuation for Roderick Alleyn... Death at the Bar: It's a midsummer's evening, and darts night at The Plume of Feathers! A distinguished painter, a celebrated actor, a woman graduate, a plump lady from County Clare and a local farmer all play their parts in a fatal experiment, which calls for the investigative expertise of Inspector Alleyn... of the public's consciousness. With this guide in hand, a detective could tell whether the victim had suffocated, drowned, been shot, stabbed, or struck by lightning, spontaneously combusted, frozen to death or expired due to starvation. With original woodcuts and case studies, this volume will fascinate lovers of crime fiction and of true crime alike! (English) Due Feb

One Dark Night: A True Story of Deceit, Desire, and Murder in a Peaceful Town

240pp Pb $15.95

Driving home with his wife Peggy, Carlos Perez-Olivo claimed he was forced off the road by another vehicle. Entering the couple's SUV, the other driver allegedly shot and killed Peggy during a struggle, whilst Carlos took a bullet in the abdomen. But disturbing facts about Carlos began to surface, including the fact that he stood to inherit Peggy's life insurance policies. With each revelation, more questions were raised. Was Carlos an innocent victim? A scheming accomplice? Or a cold-blooded killer? Here is what really happened... (American) Due Feb

Confessions of a Crooked Cop

304pp Pb $27.99

Detective Sergeant Trevor Haken was one of the infamous Golden Miles most crooked cops. Now he lives in hiding. Graduating from small bribes to stealing money and receiving kickbacks from drug dealers, Haken became an informant for the Wood Royal Commission into corruption in the New South Wales Police Service. Haken's role in gathering evidence was crucial to the outcome of the Commission and highly dangerous. If anyone had searched him and found a wire, he could have been killed. Remarkably, the author gained Haken's support and trust – and here is the story! (Australian) Due Feb

The Murder of King Tut 352pp Pb $22.95

Thrust onto Egypt's throne when just nine years old, King Tut's reign was fiercely debated from the outset. After nine years in power, Tut suddenly perished and his name was purged from Egyptian history. To this day, his death remains shrouded in controversy. Now, the authors dig through the evidence to arrive at their own account of Tut's life and untimely death. The result is an exhilarating true crime tale of intrigue, passion, and betrayal that casts fresh light on one of the oldest mysteries of all! (American) Due Feb

No, Daddy, Don't: A Father's Murderous Act of Revenge 320pp Pb $13.95

Mary Jean Pearle and John Battaglia's marriage seemed picture perfect. But behind the picture was an abusive husband. After nine hellish years, Mary Jean divorced Battaglia. She feared for her life, but not for the lives of her two daughters, with whom Battaglia was never anything less than loving. Yet in 2001, when her daughters were visiting their father, Mary Jean listened in horror, over the phone, to her older daughter's pleading cries followed by the sound of gunshots. What impulses had driven a seemingly devoted father to the ultimate act of violence? (American) Due Feb

Murder By Poison: A Casebook of Historic British Murders 256pp Pb $34.95

Readily obtainable and almost undetectable prior to advances in forensic science during the 20th century, poison was considered the ideal method of murder – and its exponents rarely stopped at just one victim. Along with the most notorious cases of murder by poison in the country, this book also features many of the cases that did not make national headlines, examining not only the methods and motives but also the real stories of the perpetrators and their victims. Blood Money: Bikies, Terrorists and Middle Eastern Gangs 336pp Tp $35.00

Controlled by a new wave of gangland bosses, organised crime in Australia has broken old taboos and formed alliances that would have once been unthinkable. There are the Middle Eastern gangs whose core business is drugs, the sale and stockpiling of dangerous weapons, extortion and large-scale fraud; the outlaw motorcycle gangs with their fortified club houses and amphetamine labs; and the Calabrian Mafia, always dangerous and opportunistic. The author contends that organised crime and terrorism are merging, turning drug dealers and car thieves into holy warriors willing to kill indiscriminately for radical Islam. (Australian) Due Feb
